

The Prayer Letter

New Horizon United Methodist Church

Volume 17, No.1 — January 2010

Please pray with me as we begin this year--

Good morning Lord,

I love You.

You and You alone are worthy of praise. I thank You for the privilege of prayer. Your mercies are new every day and every year! You are always faithful. You have always been there, even when I did not know it.

Father, Your Word assures me that You hear my prayers and will answer in the wisest ways. I come to You knowing that I have not earned the right to be heard. However, because of Your grace and mercy, You have made a way through Your Son, my Savior and Redeemer.

Forgive me for the times when I have offended or hurt another. Help me to love and forgive others, just as You have loved and forgiven me.

Give me wisdom and guidance as I am about the work of Your Kingdom.

I pray for spiritual growth. Help me to never be satisfied with where I am in my relationship with You. Create in me a hunger and thirst for knowledge and understanding of Your love for me. Remind me to never become so preoccupied with serving You that I forget to spend time with You.

Make me sensitive to where I can be used to help others deepen their commitment to You.

Thank you for hearing and answering my prayer.

*I pray in the name of Jesus.
Amen.*

"God does nothing but in answer to prayer; and even they who have been converted to God without praying for it themselves, (which is exceeding rare,) were not without the prayers of others. Every new victory which a soul gains is the effect of a new prayer."

John Wesley in Vol. XI, p. 437 (5).
